"During the time of preparation before Mass or when it is over, my heart is with my people in Syria - maybe they are desiring to receive the Eucharist, but they can't, you know?"

"And when you don't go to Mass, think that maybe there are others who will have to die, or risk their lives, to go to Mass. That's all. And pray for us."

-Mirielle Al Farah, Syria

"It is the first time in almost 2,000 years that the Mass is not celebrated in Mosul."

"I asked people how they were able to get to church and they said that they walked an hour and a half to get there. You cannot imagine how dangerous it is for a Christian family to walk through the streets of Mosul."

-Msgr. Emil Nona, Bishop of the Eparchy of St. Thomas the Apostle in Sidney, former Chaldean Archbishop of Mosul, Iraq

Help the Christians in the greatest way possible without leaving your country.

Take Them to Mass is a campaign to move Catholics around the world to take the Persecuted Christians to Mass in their intentions. The Mass is the greatest prayer there is, and offering the Eucharist for the Christians is the greatest service you can do for those who are suffering and dying for the faith.

All you have to do is make a personal commitment to go to Mass and offer the Persecuted Christians as your special intention. Pray for them and ask the Lord to help them and grant them what they need during these times of persecution.

You decide how often - once a week, once a month, everyday for a month... It is up to you. And don't just keep this for yourself, pass it on and get more people to join the cause.

So many are risking their lives to receive the Eucharist, offer yours for their continued courage.

"Once the army of men who hated Christ came to Assisi. They meant to destroy the city. St. Clare carried the Blessed Sacrament outside the convent. Only her sisters were around her. But the great army saw her coming. They turned and fled in panic."

- Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J.

"Every Holy Mass, heard with devotion, produces in our souls marvelous effects, abundant spiritual and material graces which we ourselves, do not know."

-St. Padre Pio

"This supernatural bread and this consecrated chalice are for the health and salvation of mankind."

-St. Cyprian

THE POWER OF THE EUCCHARIST

"If we only knew how God regards this Sacrifice, we would risk our lives to be present at a single Mass."

-St. Padre Pio

"Only through the Eucharist is it possible to live the heroic virtues of Christianity: charity, to the point of forgiving one's enemies; love for those who make us suffer; chastity in every age and situation of life; patience in suffering and when one is shocked by the silence of God in the tragedies of history or of one's own personal existence. You must always be Eucharistic souls in order to be authentic Christians,"

- Pope John Paul II

The Mass is the most perfect form of prayer!

-Pope Paul VI

"All the good works in the world are not equal to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass because they are the works of men; but the Mass is the work of God."
